HAPPY FALL

It's fall all around the Las Vegas valley and we are welcoming the many changes the season brings. Cooler temperatures, an array of colors, and the variety of holidays we celebrate this time of year. We also begin to reflect on all we did in 2024, while preparing to welcome a new year and the opportunities ahead in 2025.

We have an incredible group of ICF Southern Nevada members who raised their hands for consideration for positions on the chapter board for 2025. We are pleased to announce the candidates for Secretary, Finance Director and Programs Director. Please take time to learn more about them and cast your vote by December 1st, 2024.

Secretary – Evelyn Garcia-Morales is the founder and CEO of HumanKind Coaching, a unique boutique coaching practice dedication to illuminating the lives of clients. As the secretary, Evelyn would have responsibility for managing the chapter’s official records to include Board meeting minutes.

Evelyn Garcia-Morales

Finance Director – Laurie Saltzman is the VP of Human Resources for a global hospitality organization and her coaching practice focuses on partnering with senior executive leaders who strive to evolve, grow and maximize their impact. As the Finance Director (a.k.a. Treasurer), Laurie would manage the Chapter’s funds and ensures financial statements, audits and reports are completed, as required by ICF.

Laurie Saltzman

Programs Director – Jessica McClure is an Executive and Leadership coach who leverages her corporate real estate experience, industry insights and intuition to guide leaders from a variety of sectors. As the Programs Director, Jessica would lead the development of the Chapter’s annual program calendar to include events and education.

Jessica McClure

We have two board positions that will be vacant in 2025 for which we currently do not have any candidates. If you are interested in either the President-Elect or the newly created Director of Membership board positions, please contact the Board at info@icfsnv.org for more information.
